YOUNG VAUGHAN
WILL RECOVER

Arm and Leg Were Amputated,
But Patient Has Excellent
Chances for Living.

MET HIS DEATH IN CANAL

Mr. Beasley Walked Into Narrow
Stream—Last Seen
March 7th.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, Va., March 26.—W. H. Vaughan, the young man who fell beneath a moving train near Waterville, on the Norfolk and Western Railroad, last Sunday morning, sustaining such severe injuries that amputation of his right arm and right leg was necessary, is getting on very well at the Home for the Sick here, and is expected to recover.

Funeral of Mr. Beasley.

The funeral of Mr. Daniel J. Beasley, of Blackstone, whose body was found in the Upper Appomattox Canal, near this city, yesterday afternoon, took place this morning, the interment being in Blandford Cemetery. An inquest held last evening by Justice Gerow, at W. B. Ritchie's store, in Dinwiddie county, the jury rendered a verdict of accidental drowning. The exact manner of Mr. Beasley's death will probably never be learned. He was last seen alive on Thursday evening, March 7th, by a gentleman who walked up High Street with him about half-past 6 o'clock. It is supposed that he walked over to Washington Street, and there boarded a car for Fennell Park. He was fifty-six years old, and leaves six children.

Will Have New School.

The City Council has adopted the Public Improvement Committee's report, recommending an appropriation of $70,729 for roadway improvement in Petersburg. The school board's petition for an appropriation to buy a lot and erect a new schoolhouse on Wythe Street is in the hands of the Finance Committee.

Tourists Visit Battlefields.

A party of about ninety tourists from New York came up from Norfolk this morning and spent the day visiting the battlefields and other places of interest in and around Petersburg, returning to Norfolk this evening. The party included many ladies.

Death of Mrs. Marks.

Mr. B. H. Marks died this morning at the home of his only sister, Mrs. J. S. Lucas, near Prince George's County, Md. Mrs. Marks was an honored Confederate veteran, and highly esteemed in his community. He was sixty-seven years old, and leaves one son, Charles E. Marks.

TRUNK LINE TO LAKES.

Bird N. Robinson Confirms Report.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, Va., March 26.—Bird N. Robinson, president of the Mobile, Robinson and Kansas City Railway, was in the city to-day and confirmed the report that his road would build a trunk line from New Orleans to connect with the Erie and Rock Island, forming a new and much shorter trunk line from the Great Lakes to the Gulf. The Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City will build from its present Southern terminus at Mobile to New Orleans and from Middleton, Tenn., to Jopka, Ill., or Paducah, Ky.

SWIFT ON TRIAL.

Commander of Connecticut Faces Serious Charge.

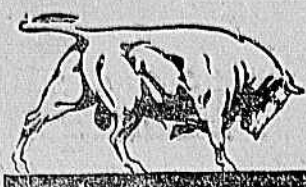

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., March 26.—Captain William Swift, commander of the battleship Connecticut, and Lieutenant E. H. Yarnall, were placed on trial before a court-martial on board the Connecticut off Old Point to-day. The officers are charged with negligence and neglect of duty because of the grounding of the battleship while entering Culebra Bay, Cuba, several months ago.

The proceedings are in secret, and nothing concerning the trial will be

Dear Clara: You ask me to write you something for you to use in a friend's autograph album. You should write your own original thought in a place like that, but being as you ask me I will suggest that you write "Use Gowan's Pneumonia Cure," and in that way you will have sense if not sentiment.

Your loving cousin,

CHARLEY.

ATLANTIC FLEET COMING

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., March 26.—Thomas Tynes and Lee Johnson, colored, charged with having robbed the body of C. F. Ferguson, the New York postmaster, found dead in a water street alley, were before Police Justice Simmons to-day and dismissed. The negroes were arrested in the Fourth Ward several days ago for having in their possession a bunch of keys and a pair of eye-glasses, which was the opinion of the police that the negroes discovered the body lying in the street and relieved it of its valuables. The men testified they found the glasses and keys on a shed adjoining a social club hall. Commonwealth's attorney asked for the dismissal.

WAGON-MAKERS MEET.

Two Large Bodies Gather in Lynchburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., March 26.—The Southern Association of the National Wagon Manufacturers Association and the Southern Vehicle Association met here to-day, each body holding separate sessions, as well as a joint session late this afternoon. To-night the sessions were executive, but to-morrow it was given out that the wagon-makers had agreed on a standard sketch and axle while the meeting was in session. The sessions were in session to-morrow.

GOOD ROADS IN DRY WEATHER.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLES CITY, Va., March 26.—The electoral board and the board of supervisors met at the courthouse to-day, the former to select judges and clerks for the next election and the latter to discuss the question of good roads, which the people are beginning to feel since the beginning of dry weather, and also to arrange for some repaving to be done to the county jail which is much needed.

SEVERE AFFLICTION.

Charles City County Family Loses
Two Children Within Few Hours.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PROVIDENCE, Va., March 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hollister have the sympathy of this entire community in the sad affliction that visited them on Sunday last. About midday their five-month-old baby passed away and a few hours later a bright little boy of seven years died of a most painful affection of the throat.

Should Maud Have Wedded?

ASHKAKE, Va., March 26.—The young ladies of Oak Park Institute gave recently, under the direction of Miss Hobson, an entertainment which was fully enjoyed and appreciated by the students and patrons of the school. The members of the Mandolin and Guitar Club and of the elocution class gave evidence of careful training. The chief feature of the evening was a debate: "Resolved, That Maud Muller should have married the judge." The debaters on both sides argued so well of love and matrimony that it was difficult to decide which were the winners. The preference, however, was given to the negative side. Miss Uia Clora being considered the best debater on the negative and Miss Janie Bledsoe on the affirmative. The debate was followed by a spelling-match, which added much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Will Select Hostesses.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PEARISBURG, Va., March 26.—McCombs Chapter, U. D. C., will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon, at which time delegates will be elected to act as hostesses for the chapter at the Jamestown Exposition some time during the summer.

Miss E. F. Williams left the best debater on the negative and Miss Janie Bledsoe on the affirmative. The debate was followed by a spelling-match, which added much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

GLAD TO BE THERE,
SAYS PRESIDENT

Formally Accepts Invitation to Open the Jamestown Exposition.

LONG-DISTANCE BALLOON RACE

Handsome Cup Offered in the Opening Event of Aeronautic Program.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., March 26.—President Roosevelt has formally accepted the invitation to formally open the Jamestown Exposition on April 26th. The acceptance, on an engraved card, was received to-day by Exposition Secretary G. T. Shepperd. It reads as follows:

The White House,
Washington, D. C., Mar. 23, 1907.
The President has pleasure in accepting the courteous invitation of the officers and directors of the Jamestown Exposition to formally open the Jamestown Tercentennial Exposition, Friday, April 26, 1907. The acceptance of William Louis, Jr., Secretary to the President, was also received.

Long-Distance Balloon Contests.

The Aero Club of America, in a letter to the department of congress and special events of the exposition, announces that a handsome trophy will be offered by them for the winner of the long-distance balloon contest, to take place on the 4th of May, which will be the first event of the aeronautic program at the tercentennial. Alan R. Hawley, A. S. Chandler, Dr. Julian P. Thomas and Max Fleischnann, all noted aeronauts, are entered in this race; also Bert G. Courtwright, of Atlanta, Ga., who is making preparations to fly to the exposition in his balloon.

President of Congress.

Willis L. Moore, chief of the Weather Bureau at Washington, has been officially appointed president of the Jamestown Exposition Aeronautic Congress, which is to hold its meetings at the exposition during the period of the celebration.

A meeting of the Chesapeake Kennel Club will be held at the parlors of the Lorraine Hotel on Wednesday after the 27th, at 8 P. M., and a large attendance is expected, as important matters will be taken up. The exposition dog show will be held under the auspices of this club.

An entire regiment of the West Virginia National Guard is expected to come to the exposition, for West Virginia day, July 2d. The troops will arrive on June 30th, and remain until July 5th.

FOR NEW Y. M. C. A.

Fredericksburg Citizens' Hold Enthusiastic Meeting.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., March 26.—A conference of some of the citizens who are interested in the organization of a Young Men's Christian Association here was held here last night, with State Secretary L. A. Coulter, of Richmond. The matter was fully discussed, and it was decided about $15,000 take to raise a fund of about $15,000 for the erection of a suitable building for the work, and a campaign will be started a little later for that purpose. Secretary Coulter will return here to direct the campaign.

One of the largest crowds ever seen at Orange Courthouse on court day was there yesterday, it being March court. Politics were generally discussed. The candidates for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the district were not present, all being at Warrenton; but their friends were out in force, looking out for their interest. Messrs. Carter, of Rappahannock, and Jeffers, of Stafford, and James, of the Democratic nomination for the State Senate, were present, conferring with their friends. The candidates for the Democratic nomination for the House of Delegates were also on hand. They are Hon. C. C. Callahan, the incumbent, and W. S. Fraser.

It is stated that there may be a third candidate, Mr. H. T. Holliday, Jr., of Rapidan, but he has not yet announced himself. The county politics also received a share of attention, there being aspirants present for some of the county offices. Rev. E. J. Richardson, State secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, was present, and delivered an address to a large crowd on the court green, after which a local Anti-Saloon League was organized.

NAME STEVENS.

Washington and Lee Professor
Will Attend Spelling Board.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LEXINGTON, Va., March 26.—Professor W. Le Conte Stevens, of Washington and Lee University, will be the representative at the coming first annual meeting of the Simplified Spelling Board, to be held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, in New York City, on April 3d and 4th. The meeting will be a gathering of philologists and scholars from the United States, Great Britain and Canada. Among the British representatives is expected to be William Archer, the famous critic.

Judge Garnett refused to say how he would vote, declaring that he was not in the matter, and he refused to even say whether he thought the retention of State Librarian Kennedy was likely or not. In fact, he declared that the matter was one in which he could not be quoted, and he upon which he would express no opinion until official action is taken at the coming meeting of the Library Board.

and it has stood the test. The little stone mill in which Patapsco Flour was first produced was built before the Revolution. Patapsco Flour stood for purity and quality when your great grandmother used it in her old-fashioned brick ovens. The little mill has grown since then into the finest equipped plant of its kind in America. Its wares are known in every mart in the world as the best and purest. And today is the only flour for the cook who knows—the creamiest, whitest and most appetizing flour that can be produced.

PATAPSCO SUPERLATIVE FLOUR

"Patapsco" means economy because it makes more bread than any other brand. This is because every atom of it is pure flour. Its bread is fleecy and soft, not "blue-white" as when made from impure flour.

A sack of "Patapsco" will settle the flour question with you forever.

several representatives will come from Canada, and in the California delegation will be David Starr Jordan, president of the University of California. The meeting will consist of business sessions, discussions of papers, and a dinner, at which Andrew Carnegie will preside. Professor Stevens was asked to attend the meeting and take part in the discussions, as the result of an address on simplified spelling he had recently delivered, which attracted the attention of the Simplified Spelling Board.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Man Buried Alive While Digging
Foundation for a Church.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HARRISONBURG, Va., March 26.—Jacob W. Emswiler, a laborer, employed in making excavations for the foundation of the new Presbyterian Church, was crushed to death this afternoon by being caught under a mass of falling dirt. Emswiler was at work at the bottom of a ten-foot trench, with another man, John Detrick. Without a moment's warning the bank gave way. Detrick was able to escape, but Emswiler was caught in a "steeping" posture, and it is believed died almost instantly. After nearly an hour's work the body was gotten out and removed to an undertaker's establishment.

Coroner Prebaugh was notified, and after an examination of the body decided that an inquest was unnecessary. Emswiler was forty-seven years of age, and leaves a widow, who is seriously ill, and ten children, eight of whom are quite young.

JUDGE SURPRISED.

No One Authorized to Speak for Him Regarding Library Matter.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., March 26.—Judge T. S. Garnett, member of the State Library Board, commenting to-day upon a dispatch from Richmond suggesting that he would vote with a majority of the members of the board at their meeting in April to retain State Librarian Kennedy, with the subsequent dismissal of a number of subordinates in the library at Richmond, expressed great surprise at such a publication, and said it was unauthorized from beginning to end, and in so far as he was concerned.

CRIMINAL LIBEL.

Edward Krug and Harry Gould,
News-Dealers Pay $90.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., March 26.—Edward Krug and Harry Gould, young men engaged in selling newspapers, were arraigned before Judge Hanckel in the Corporation Court to-day on the charge of criminal libel. They plead guilty and were fined $90 each, which they paid. They issued a libelous letter against other newspaper dealers. They were tried in the Police Court and fined $20 and costs each on three

SURPRISE MARRIAGE.

Wedding of Richmond Man and Roanoke Girl Announced.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOK, Va., March 26.—A number of young people were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith last night. After the crowd had assembled, Rev. J. H. Haley announced that he had united Miss Lena Smith, the pretty young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, and Mr. Joseph Dominici, at his marriage on February 19th. A supper followed, after which the couple left for Richmond, the former home of the groom.

DAYS OF WHIPPING.

Boys, Convicted of Theft, Given
Taste of Cowhide's Lash.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, Va., March 26.—The days of the whipping-post were recalled in the Bristol, Va., Police Court to-day, when, by order of Mayor Rice, Gordon Johnson and Clarence Franklin, colored boys, found guilty of theft, were given a thorough lashing with a horse-whip. The father of the Franklin boy administered the whipping.
